AMST American Studies

AMST 6131 North American Archeology

3 Credit Hours. 3 Lecture Hours. 0 Lab Hours.
An introductory course on the archeology of North America. Concentrates on the prehistory and protohistory of Native Americans as well as introducing students to the history of North American archeology.

Cross Listing(s): ANTH 6131.

AMST 6132 Southeast Archeology

3 Credit Hours. 3 Lecture Hours. 0 Lab Hours.
A study of the prehistoric cultures of the Southeastern U.S. including their patterns of subsistence, economy, social and political organization, art, and architecture. The relationship between culture and environment in producing culture change is emphasized.