The City of Statesboro

The City of Statesboro is a progressive community that provides an exceptional quality of life to its residents and offers southern charm and hospitality to its visitors. The City offers a high standard of living with a commitment to ensure the most responsive and progressive public services to residents, businesses, and visitors. Statesboro is where the living remains softly southern.

Statesboro has a growing economy facilitated by a strong industrial base, a growing dynamic research university, and a regional medical center. Statesboro is currently experiencing rapid change as a result of unprecedented growth in commercial/retail expansion, residential development, and a community of entrepreneurs.

The City of Statesboro is the county seat of Bulloch County, Georgia located in the southeastern corner of the state. It is located about 3.5 hours from Atlanta and less than 1 hour from Savannah, Georgia.

Recreation opportunities in the City are plentiful. The mild climate through the year allows outside recreation for enthusiasts almost any time of the year. In addition, the city offers many cultural opportunities that include the David H. Averitt Center for the Arts and Performing Arts Center on the Georgia Southern University campus.
