Endorsements

Endorsement programs are available in the areas of: Autism, English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL), Online Teaching and Learning, Teacher Leadership, Special Education Transition Specialist, Reading, Positive Behavior Intervention and Support, and Teacher Support and Coaching. Endorsement programs can be completed as non-degree course work or, as appropriate and with advisor approval, included in a degree program of study. These endorsements may be added to a professional certificate in teaching, service, and leadership fields. See the endorsement programs at the end of the College of Education Graduate Section for specific admissions and course requirements that pertain to each individual program.
