Reinstatement Appeal

Students who are academically excluded from a degree program may appeal for reinstatement following exclusion. For detailed information regarding the graduate Academic Appeal procedures refer to the Academic Appeal (http://catalog.georgiasouthern.edu/graduate/graduate-studies/general-graduate-policies-procedures/academic-standing) procedures section of the Catalog. To appeal for reinstatement, the student must complete and submit the online web based Appeal Form. Information regarding required documents to support an appeal for reinstatement is found at the website. A student may attach document files to the appeal form. Applicants may track the status of their appeal through the online website. Students granted reinstatement will be placed on probation, regardless of GPA. Please refer to the Probation (http://catalog.georgiasouthern.edu/graduate/graduate-studies/general-graduate-policies-procedures/probation) section of the catalog for more information on this academic standing.
