

Public Administration Concentration (Online)

Concentration Program

The concentration in Public Administration requires a total of 18 credit hours. Students are required to take Introduction to Public Administration (PBAD 2231) and then must complete five upper-division courses.

This concentration is ONLY available for students who have as their major the Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies or the Online Bachelor of Interdisciplinary Studies.

		Credit Hours
Course Requirements		18
Required Course:
PBAD 2231	Introduction to Public Administration (Required Course)
Select five elective courses from the following:
NMLI 2231	Introduction to Nonprofit Management
PBAD 3331	Applied Public Management
PBAD 3333	The Policy Process and Democracy
PBAD 3334	Introduction to Public and Nonprofit Financial Management
PBAD 3431	Public Budgeting
PBAD 3731	Public Policy
PBAD 3732	Policy Analysis
PBAD 3733	Contemporary Policy Issues
PBAD 4031	Selected Topics in Public and Nonprofit Management
PBAD 4231	Administrative Law
PBAD 4232	Public Service Values and Ethics
PBAD 4233	Human Capital Management for Administrators
PBAD 4234	IT and E-government for Public Managers
PBAD 4235	Research Methods and Evaluation
PBAD 4331	Leadership & Managerial Innovation
PBAD 4334	Policy and Markets
PBAD 4791	Field Internship in Public Administration
Total Credit Hours		18

Advisement

Undergraduate Academic Advisement at Georgia Southern is provided to all degree-seeking undergraduate students by professional advisors. Academic Advisors are located on all three Georgia Southern University campuses. Students are required to meet with their assigned Academic Advisor at least once a semester. For more information visit the Academic Advisement (<http://catalog.georgiasouthern.edu/undergraduate/academic-resources/programs-requirements/advisement/>) catalog page.